

PRESS RELEASE

Mahindra Last Mile Mobility Limited is India's No.1 electric commercial vehicle manufacturer in FY25

Mumbai, April 1, 2025: Mahindra Last Mile Mobility Limited (MLMML), India's leading commercial electric vehicle (EV) manufacturer, has reaffirmed its market dominance in FY25 – the fourth time in a row. With its flagship brands, Treo and Zor Grand, MLMML has driven electrification in the L5 category, contributing to a significant 24.2% EV penetration in the segment. This marks a substantial increase from 16.9% EV penetration in FY24.

MLMML's market share in the L5 category stands at an impressive 37.3%, despite stiff competition from legacy players and new entrants.

The company has achieved notable milestones, including:

- Becoming the first to sell over 2 Lakh commercial EVs
- Selling over 1 Lakh units of the Treo, India's No.1 electric auto

In FY25, MLMML expanded its product portfolio with the launch of the Treo with a metal body and the Mahindra ZEO, its first-ever 4 wheeler electric SCV. The Mahindra ZEO, following on the footsteps of its electric 3 wheeler stablemates, has started off on its 4 wheeler cargo electrification journey.
